This Is It...

Yes sir! Bay St. Louis has a brand new white fire engine. This is the first new fire engine to be purchased by the City since 1928, now, with a new motor in the old engine, Bay St. Louis has two valuable pieces of fire-fighting equipment.
The City entered into a contract with the Diamond T Truck and Chassis Company of New Orleans August 2, 1952, to purchase a Diamond T chassis and cab with a 750 gallon Boyer pumper for the amount of $13,763.42, bought on a purchase-rental basis as approved by the Attorney-General of the State of Mississippi.
On the date of delivery, October 29, the sum of $2500 was paid down, and on October 29 of each year, for the next three years, the sum of $3,754.14 will be paid. On the final payment, $1,000 is given to the company and they turn the fire engine over to the City of Bay St. Louis.
The Mississippi State Fire Rating Bureau made a test Wednesday on the new equipment, and pumped more than the required 750 gallons per minute.

Observations... By UDELL

Truman Schultz, 21, a local boy, will make his debut as a professional fighter at the Municipal auditorium Monday night, November 3. Truman, who is managed by Sidney Manier, Sr., one-time manager of another local boxing favorite, Russell Manier, will appear on the same card as Bernard Doucens. This young man, who was graduated from Bay High where he was state champion for three years, won the Golden Gloves tourney in Hattiesburg, Jackson and Memphis last year. Truman, who is employed at Coast Electric Power Association, won trophies in almost every tournament in which he participated for sportsmanship. Quite a number from Bay St. Louis are making plans to attend the event Monday night. Our good wishes for an easy victory go with Truman.

The committee for the proposed parochial school met with parishioners of Our Lady of the Gulf Catholic Church Sunday evening to discuss the school. The committee will meet again Wednesday to work out other details before meeting in the near future with the parishioners.

Be sure and go to the polls Tuesday night, VOTE. Regardless of how you vote, whether the Democratic ticket or the Democrats for Eisenhower ticket, VOTE. It is a privilege that very few countries have, the right to vote as you want. So, as true Americans, we should exercise this right.
Wilmer Thibaux, in his weekly ad, is using the vote theme to make people conscious of the fact that they should go to the polls Tuesday and vote.

This week, the Fire Department was called to several grass fires that would have caused a good deal of damage if they had gotten out of control. In this period of drought, we should be careful where we start fires. Always be careful, particularly while hunting, with matches, cigarettes and burning trash. If you have to burn trash, watch the fire and be sure that all flames are extinguished when you leave.

Our good friend, Joseph O. Mauffray, who was seriously ill for a while, has proved that you can't keep a good man down. Mr. Joe is able to get out for a ride now and then and is able to see his old friends. He just had to get up and around this week because he will celebrate his 82nd birthday today. Happy Birthday and may you have many more.

Hardin Shattuck, genial manager of Coast Electric Power Association, was telling us the other day that R. E. A. will hold one of the best annual membership meetings in its history November 15. Appliance booths, 15 in all, will be sponsored mainly by local dealers, with a few from Gulfport and Piquette. Honorable William Colmen will be guest speaker. Many valuable prizes will be given away. This year local people will have a sneak preview of the booths, etc., Friday night, November 14.

Bay-Pass District Scouts Officers Elected Monday

The monthly meeting of the Bay-Pass District of the Boy Scouts of America was held Monday night at Hotel Reed.

Officers elected for the ensuing year were: L. S. Pahlman, chairman; Dr. R. C. Stewart, vice-chairman; and T. G. Stechmann, commissioner.
The Boy Scouts of America will climax its nationwide "Get Out The Vote" campaign on Sunday, November 2, when most of its two million members call on 30,000,000 homes throughout the United States and leave on front-door-knocks a Liberty Bell cutout urging all citizens to vote.
The campaign is non-partisan without reference to any candidate or party. It is sponsored jointly with the Freedoms Foundation.

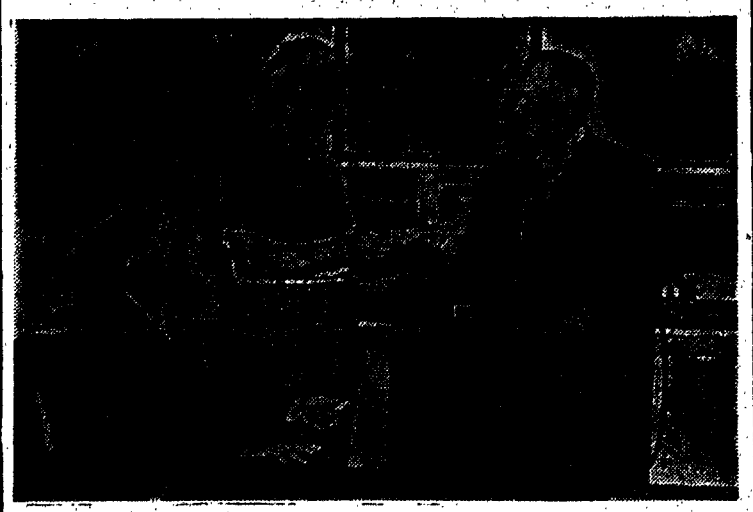

The message on the Liberty Bell cutout reads:
"Vote as you think. Think when you vote, Tuesday, November 4. Today's youth counts on you. Use your freedom to vote."

The Boy Scouts of America, says Dr. Arthur A. Schuck, Chief Scout Executive, recognizes the need of "reselling" America to its citizens by urging every eligible person to exercise his right to vote in the national election.
Dr. Schuck pointed out that only fifty per cent of eligible citizens voted in 1948.

"This year there will be about 97,000,000 eligible voters," he said. "Our objective is to increase the voting percentage. We feel that America will be strengthened by our efforts in doing this service which we are equipped to do. Over 2,000,000 boys will learn a great lesson of participating in citizenship as they perform a significant service to our country."
Boy Scouts of the New Orleans Area Council, which administers Bay-Pass District have displayed a total of 20 posters, it was announced by Bernard Farrelly, District Chairman of the Bay-Pass District.

Mr. Farrelly said he expects about 100 Cub Scouts, Boy Scouts and Explorers will be on the job bright and early Sunday, November 2 to hang the Liberty Bell cutout on the doorbells of about all the homes in this area.
Mr. Farrelly said that while the campaign hopes to stimulate adults to meet their responsibilities of good citizenship by voting, the scouts themselves will also get a lesson in their duty to vote when they come of age.
The principal scout leaders sponsoring the campaign in Bay St. Louis and Pass Christian are Chairman Bernard Farrelly and Scoutmasters Fred Fayard Sr., F. Monti, James Filligame, L. S. Pahlman, Nellius Favre, and the Scoutmaster and Sea Scout Skipper of Pass Christian.

1953 ACP Starts In Hancock County

The 1953 Agricultural Conservation Program is underway in Hancock County, says Fitzhugh Lee, Chairman of the Production and Marketing Administration County Committee. Training schools for community committeemen have been held, and now these committeemen are contacting individual farmers in their districts. A total of 17 community committeemen are engaged in making these farm-by-farm visits.

Before these committeemen started making contacts, the chairman explained, they were given the benefit of instruction reflecting the training and experience of specialists of the Soil Conservation Service, Forest Service, Extension Service, Farmers Home Administration, and FMA. This, added to their experience as practical farmers in their local districts, gives them a good rounded preparation for contacting farmers in connection with the 1953 ACP sign-up, the chairman believes. The committeemen are prepared to help individual farmers make the best possible use of the assistance provided under ACP for soil and water conservation practices.

Where technical advice is needed, the chairman further explained, it is available through such agencies as the Soil Conservation Service, the Extension Service, and the Forest Service. The purpose of the committeemen's visit will be to help the individual farmer in determining the most needed conservation on his farm and to acquaint the farmer with the assistance available through the ACP.

Head Of M. S. C. Addresses Rotary

Cecil Cook, president of the Mississippi Southern college, and District Rotary president, addressed the local club Wednesday.

Mr. Cook said that the rapid development of Mississippi Southern is the result of the shift of population in Mississippi to the South. More than half of the students at the institution come from 36 of the southern counties.

"Sooner or later," he stated, "the people in Bay St. Louis will be coming to this college."

Mr. Cook said that the rapid development of Mississippi Southern is the result of the shift of population in Mississippi to the South. More than half of the students at the institution come from 36 of the southern counties.

Speaking about the board meeting of the Bay St. Louis Club that he attended Tuesday night, Rotarian Cook said the thing that was outstanding in his opinion, about the group, was their classification principle; because, as he added, the principle of Rotary is based on the way members represent a particular occupation in the club. "Make a member a man of sterling worth, a man of character," the speaker continued.

Among the other outstanding qualities found in the local club, he listed fellowship, training in vocations, which is the big idea behind Rotary, and community service, which is one of the principle activities.

He commended the group's projects, particularly the recent drive for the resuscitator for King's Daughters hospital.

"Rotary is a bridge of enlightenment across spiritual life, idealism and social development. Rotary is a way of life, the essence of friendships and the roll of all nationalities," he concluded.

Following the meeting Ben Hille, president, accompanied by Mr. Cook and a group of Rotarians, left by boat for Darwood-on-the-Jordan.

Fucich - Asher Wedding Held

Miss Jean Victoria Asher, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Emile Asher of Lakeshore, became the bride Sunday, October 26, at 4:00 p. m. in Our Lady of the Gulf Catholic church, of Vladimir Frederick Fucich Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Fucich Sr., of New Orleans and Lakeshore.

Rev. Father Hugh J. Taylor performed the double ring ceremony before the altar which was banked with vases of white gladioli, chrysanthemums and potted palms. Entering on the arm of her father, who gave her in marriage, the bride wore a white lace gown over satin; a panel of nylon tulle fell from the waist in the back of the dress and formed the full length train. The form-fitting bodice, with long sleeves ending in points over the hands, had a yoke of illusion with scallops of lace.

Her finger-tip veil of illusion was held to the head with a tiara of pearls. The bride carried a classic bouquet of white roses centered with an orchid.

Miss Joyce Asher of Bay St. Louis was maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Misses Shirley Fricke and Geraldine Lafontaine of Lakeshore, Mary Ann Cuevas and Delta Garcia of Bay St. Louis and Mrs. Sidney Davis of Jackson; Linda Ladner of Bay St. Louis was junior bridesmaid. Two of the maids wore pale blue nylon tulle over taffeta; two wore pale green nylon tulle, one wore lavender nylon tulle and the other maid peach tulle. The junior bridesmaid wore pink tulle over taffeta.

Their dresses were made with strapless bodices and full skirts, with a ruffle of the net. They wore matching capes of the tulle with a ruffle around the edge and wore picture hats of tulle. They carried cascade bouquets of cream colored gladioli with contrasting ribbons.

The flower girls, Brenda O'Farrell of Lakeshore, Christine Tartavouille and Lila Ladner of Bay St. Louis and Karen Fucich of New Orleans, wore short dresses in pastel shades and carnation headpieces; they carried flower baskets.

David Marquar carried the rings on a white satin pillow.

Kenneth Fucich, brother of the groom, was best man. Groomsmen were Stan Fucich, Gerald Luther, Billy Bourgeois, Andy Asher and Lawrence Lafontaine.

Ushers were Norman Tartavouille and Joe Fucich.

fessor J. Hammersbach who also played the wedding marches.

A reception was held at the Lakeshore Civic Hall where the bridal party was assisted in receiving by her parents and the groom's father.

The bride's table, which was covered with a lace cloth, was centered with the wedding cake. White gladioli surrounded the cake. Mrs. Asa LaFontaine cut and served the cake after the bride and groom cut the first slice.

The couple left on a wedding trip later in the evening. For traveling the bride wore a green suit with brown accessories and an orchid corsage. Upon their return they will be at home in New Orleans where the groom is employed.

O P S NEWS

Customers of repair shops and other "services" establishments in Mississippi will soon find ceiling prices plainly listed on official Office of Price Stabilization posters, R. W. May, district director, announced this week.

Standard forms have been provided by OPS to replace varied methods which service businesses have been using in displaying ceiling prices, he said. OPS found that display methods varied so widely from shop to shop that customers often have not known that ceiling prices were available for their inspection.

Through use of the new posters, Mr. May said, shops all over the State will have substantially the same easy-to-read method in listing ceiling prices.

Businesses affected include laundries, tailor shops, dry cleaners, parking lots, service stations, shops doing repair work on shoes, radios, television sets, household electrical equipment watches and clocks, furnaces, heaters, automobiles and trucks, and a long list of service establishments.

The District Director said OPS is mailing 1,000,000 of the posters throughout the nation. Within seven days after the business firm receives its poster, the establishment is required to display the poster. If less than 20 services are offered, all services will be listed. If more, the 20 principal services will be listed on one poster and supplementary posters or lists showing the ceiling on all other services offered will be maintained for the inspection of the customer.

Businesses covered by the posting requirements of the retail services regulation, CPR 34, which do not receive the official posters may obtain them from the District OPS Office in Jackson. Extra posters are also available for businesses requiring more than one.

The amended regulation is effective October 27.

PRICE INFORMATION CENTER

Detailed information regarding any OPS ceiling price regulation may be obtained at the District Office, 126 East Amite Street, Jackson, Mississippi. Housewives and business men are invited to use the services of the OPS price information center by telephoning 5-8461 or by stopping by the District Office in Jackson.

Announces Change In Squirrel Season

The State Game and Fish Commission today issued the following statement in connection with its action in opening the squirrel season October 23, 1952:

"It is not believed that 60,000 hunters hunting legally will start any more fires than 30,000 hunters hunting illegally. Furthermore, it may be assumed with confidence that the squirrel hunters are now more impressed than ever with the importance of using every precaution to prevent the starting of fires.

"The Game and Fish Commission appeals to the hunters to cooperate with the Commission and the Forestry Commission in such a way as to fully justify the action of the Commission in opening the season at this time.

"If the doubt is not broken at an early date there should be an appreciable increase in the number of woods fires which can be traced to hunters, the Commission will, after due consideration, close all hunting seasons over which the commission has complete jurisdiction."

County Agent's Notes

By HOWARD SIMMONS

Now is the last call for spraying cattle for lice control before extremely cold weather sets in. After the weather gets cold, it is no longer advisable to spray animals. Then dust is recommended.

Remember, cattle lice do the most damage during the winter. Do not let them dip into your livestock profits. They retard growth on fattening animals and reduce milk production in dairy animals.

Check with your local county agents for specific insecticides and dilution rates. Then spray thoroughly. It usually takes from two to three gallons of diluted material to adequately cover one animal.

Dusts are less effective than sprays but should be used during cold weather.

ORCHARD

All Mississippi farmers should have at least one half acre home orchard in addition to some berries in order to produce plenty of fresh fruit in season.

Late fall and early winter are the best times to plant fruit trees and grape vines. Plan now to have peaches, plums, apples, muscadines, grapes, persimmons, figs, youngberries, strawberries and boysenberries or at least some of these in your home garden.

It is a good idea to plant enough area to orchard to have some fruit to sell on local markets in addition to that needed for home use.

For fruit varieties adapted to your area check with your county agent.

Other orchard management jobs now timely included: treating peach trees against borers. Get your copy of the Mississippi Spray Calendar now.

PASTURES

Farmers who did not get their clovers and legumes planted during October are advised to take a chance and plant now. Even ryegrass planted now will give good early spring grazing.

November and December are good times to spray for control of dock weeds. Check with your county agent for details.

Don't graze oats, ryegrass, clover or any other grazing crop until it is large enough and strong enough to stand grazing. If you do, you may lose the entire grazing crop. Livestock will trample young plants up by the roots. So don't take a chance. Even if grazing is badly needed, hold stock off until the plants become well established.

Only GMC builds 'em "Big-Truck" rugged!

GMC is the only manufacturer to engineer its lightest-weight models with all five of the "heavy-duty" features most other manufacturers reserve for "big trucks" only.

Even in the lightest GMC pickup truck, you'll find a sturdy truck-built engine protected by many of the same extra-value features that go into the big 200-horsepower GMC's: Tocco-Hardened crankshaft, airplane-type main and rod bearings, full-floating piston pins, rifle-drilled connecting rods and full-pressure lubrication all the way to the piston pins. There's the same "extra" engineering that means extra years of trouble-free service in the chassis, too—a deep, rigid frame riding on long "pillow-action" springs, and real "truck-size" brakes that respond to a nudge of the pedal.

Why not come in and drive one? Even the steering mechanism—which operates in a bed of recirculating ball bearings—is the best in the business. Whatever size truck you need, you can't beat a GMC!
